

Across the River Phonics

You need a pretend river (could use fabric or card or your imagination!)

Then using stepping stones (from paper) write letters on each one to spell out a word. (You can use example words from the phonics bobble game or see Letters and Sounds doc online to find more!)

Then your child has to blend the letters correctly to get across the river safely before the tolls comes!

Example:

