

Today, Friday 24th April Staffordshire Wildlife Trust are launching a NEW "Get Wild at home" feature on their website. This exciting digital experience will offer lots of ideas, inspiration, photos, videos to enable and encourage people to stay connected and involved with wildlife and the natural world during these usual times.

There is also a Get Wild TV feature, on which they will share pre-recorded and live videos through their families Facebook page.

For more details and to sign up for Get Wild at home, check out the website.

It is free to join up. There is a 'Kids zone' and also a 'Grown-ups corner'.
