Read the information on the website in the section 'How was Greece ruled?' to find out about what a city state is.

How was Greece ruled?

There was never one country called 'ancient Greece'. Instead, Greece was divided up into small city-states, like Athens, Sparta, Corinth and Olympia.

Click on the interactive map to find out about some of the city states of Ancient Greece.

Using the task sheet, examine the map showing the locations of six of the city states in Ancient Greece. Complete the key for the map using the website to help you.
