

LO: To identify how Krishna is represented in Hindu stories

How is Krishna represented in these stories?

What can you learn about Krishna from these stories?

Think,
pair,
share.

What messages are being conveyed in the stories?

Which 'big questions' are these stories exploring?

Remember to extend your answer by explaining why you think this...because...

Would Sudama have been rewarded if he had asked for a favour?

Would asking for a favour have made Sudama less deserving of help?

Is it always wrong to steal?

Why are cows sacred to Hindus?