Romero Britto
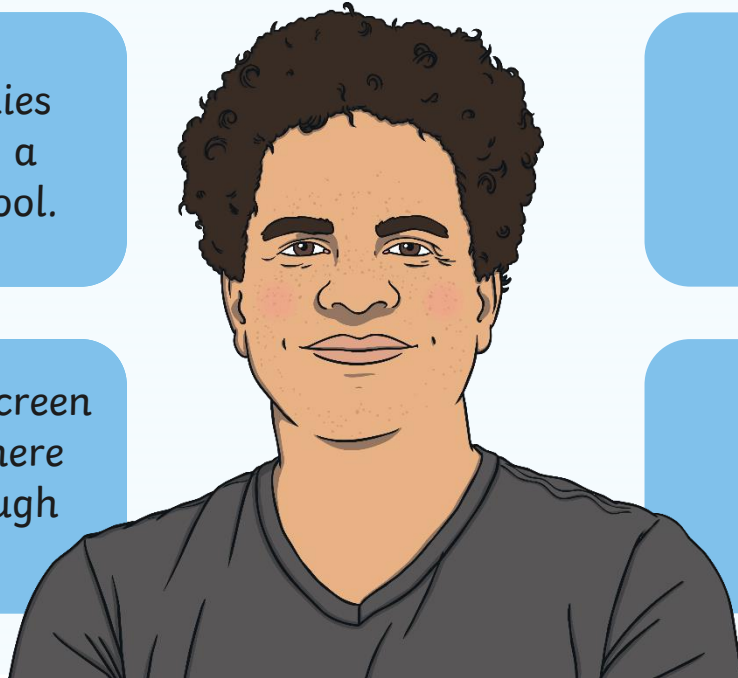

Who Is Romero Britto?

A person who creates sculptures. They may do this by carving or moulding a material, such as wood or metal.

Romero Britto is a Brazilian artist.

A person who applies paint either using a brush or another tool.

He is a pop artist.

A person who does screen printing. This is where ink is pressed through a stencil.

He is a painter, serigrapher and sculptor.

How Did Romero Britto Become an Artist?

Romero loved art from an early age.

He taught himself and would paint at any given opportunity.

He would use his imagination to paint on surfaces, such as newspaper and cardboard.

"Art is too important not to share."
Romero Britto

What Is Special about His Work?

He uses features of pop art and cubism.

He uses:
pattern
bright, bold colours
black border lines

What Is Pop Art?

Pop art first came to Britain in the mid 1950s.

It is classed as modern art.

It is based around popular culture, including advertising and comic books.

It uses bright colours and bold patterns.

Photo courtesy of (Jbribeiro1 @Wikimedia.org) - granted under creative commons licence – attribution

What Is Cubism?

Cubism first became popular in the early 1950s.

It is classed as modern art.

It was brought about by an artist called Pablo Picasso.
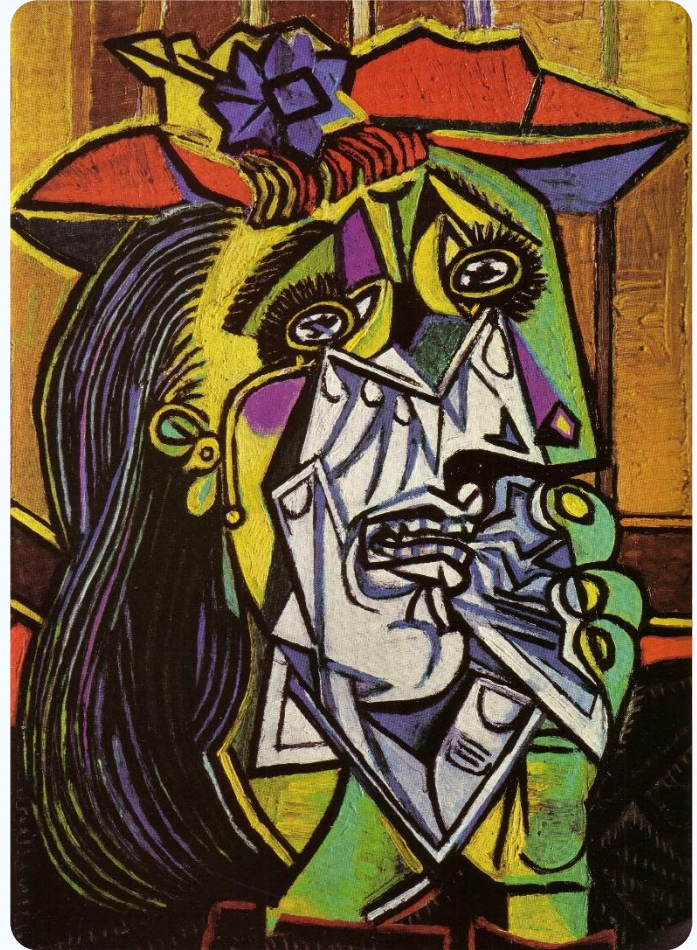

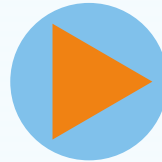

Pictures were separated into geometric shapes.
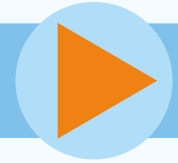

twinkl.com

Examples of His Work

Romero Britto has created work for many popular brands.

His work is also displayed in many popular places, such as airports.

The Royal Family

In 2011, Romero Britto created portraits of the Royal Family.

Take a look at some of the portraits he created.

Discuss it...

Which members of the Royal Family did you spot?

In the Style of Romero Britto's Work

Tell your partner something you have learnt about Romero Britto.

Could you create your own work in the style of Romero Britto?

Please use the sheet on the website to create your own!